medical form

- all athletes must complete a medical form with information about their current state of health, medication use and allergies
- for transplant recipients there are more questions about the current medical status
 - if critical answers are required, you will see an instruction to send a statement from your transplant physician to the email address provided
- you no longer need to have the medical form printed, as we are collecting the data here and will make it available to medical professionals in case of an emergency
- click further at the bottom of the page

Before competing in the World Transplant Games your general health and fitness must be stable as judged by yourself and confirmed by your transplant follow-up doctor. You will be asked to sign a waiver to confirm that you are fit to compete in your chosen sport(s) and have appropriate medical insurance to cover your participation in the World Transplant Games.

PLEASE BRING A COPY OF YOUR MOST RECENT CLINIC REVIEW LETTER AT YOUR TRANSPLANT CENTER WITH YOU TO THE WTG, EITHER ELECTRONICALLY OR A PAPER COPY.
